ELECTION MOB STORMS PHILADELPHIA CITY HALL.

Hoot Head of Police When Report Spreads That New Mayor Was Being Counted Out.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. & -Scenes of riotous demonstration in Philadel-phia's City Hall, re-calling the outbreak in the Council Chamber a few years ago, when hangmens' nooses were waved before recalcitrant Councilmen, showed early to-day that the reform wave that has swept the Quaker City was of the militant order. Enraged by reports thrown upon a screen outside the City Hall that Rudolph Blanken-burg, the Keystone-Democratic party's reform candidate for Mayor, was being counted out, a mob of supporters of the successful reform leader burst into the corridors of the building and stormed the doors leading into the priate office of Safety Director Clay, yellng and hooting him.

Blocked and finally dispersed by police energes and the motor squad, who used heir clubs freely, the mob gathered out- distance telephone: side and formed about the North Broad street station, where their demonstra-tion ended in a free-for-all fight when the paraders ran into a crowd from the Leeds Club. The two factions finally were dispersed by the police reserved and a number of arrests were made. The "counting out" rumor originated when it was alleged the police were holding up division returns, none having been sent to the Keystone party head-quarters for more than an hour and a

Gov. Wilson upon his arrival at the State Capitol at Trenton to-day after scanning the returns from the various countles of New Jersey, issued the following statement, which he had dictated to The Evening World over the long

"I deeply regret the loss of the House by my party through the loss of Essex County, and the failure to gain the Senate. But I look forward with great interest to the next session as affording an opportunity to the Republican leaders to fulfill the various explicit pledges of their platform. If they do, that session should be productive of legislation of con-siderable importance and benefit to the State, and I shall carnestly hope for the co-operation in reforms planned in the interest of the whole Stale, which we are all sworn to serve."

The Governor arose early as usual to-day at Princeton, N. J., and took his usual 9.83 train for the State Capitol. There was noting in his jaunty appearance to indicate the failure of his personal campaign throughout the State to gain the House.
